

St. Johns Lutheran School Photo Permission Slip

Website:

St. Johns Lutheran School uses our website as a tool to communicate with school families, teachers, prospective students, and the larger community. To enhance this experience, we would like to use photos/video/artwork to show student involvement in various activities and to celebrate student work. We understand the importance of cyber safety and will never post a student's full name with a photo on the website.

_____ I DO give permission for my child(s) photo, voice, video, artwork to be used on the school website. Student full last names will not be used on the school website.

_____ I DO NOT give permission for my child(s) photo, voice, video, artwork to be used on the school website.

Printed Materials:

Also during the school year, staff of St. Johns Lutheran School may photograph your child for use in school newsletters, newspaper publications, school marketing materials, brochures, news releases, or the church directory. The photographs may be of groups of students or individuals, and the students' names may be used. This includes sports, honor roll, NLSW, or any school function or activity.
